This is our 4th year to host Prayer on the Hill. All the prayer streams of Kansas come together to launch the legislative session. It's a wonderful time of praise, prayer and worship. Prayer on the Hill also launches the project by its same name. Everyday during the legislative session we have prayer warriors who come into the capitol to pray from 8 a.m.-5 p.m. They meet in room 381W. to sign in and then disperse around the capitol. Depending on the day, they might go into the House or Senate chambers, or perhaps a committee hearing. We sit in the back and quietly pray for the Lord's will to be done and for His people to speak up when something is presented about the state government. Dave DePue of the Capitol Commission is almost always in the capitol and Donna Lippoldt is there each Thursday. Denise Cochran or Barbara Saldivar of CWA have people who come to pray and can help direct you to critical positions. It's a privilege to be able to pray in the capitol and for the decisions that are made. 1 Tim. 2:1-2 says, "First of all, I urge that prayer and petitions and thanksgivings be made on behalf of all men, for kings, and all who are in authority so that we may lead a tranquil and quiet life in all godliness and dignity."

The Lord is very clear that we, His people are to be involved. If you have any questions don't hesitate to call Donna at 316-516-0777 Culture Shield., or go to www.cultureshield.com for more information.
